the LOWER HOUSE of ASSEMBLY.
Nov. 22, 1763.

ORDERED, That those CLAUSES of the Inspection Law, directing the Manner of Inspectors delivering up the Warehouses and Stores to New Inspectors, and those which regulate the Justices and Inspectors to meet, and the Time to order Repairs of, or Additions to, the Warehouses, be Printed in the Maryland Gazette.

M. MACKEMMIE, Cl. Lo. Ho.

Be it therefore Enacted, That the Justices and Electors of each respective County, shall meet at the Court-House of such County, on the second Day of December yearly, if fair Weather (if not the next fair Day) under the Penalty of 1000 lb. of Tobacco each, at which said Meeting it shall be determined by a Majority of the Justices present, upon the best Information they can from the said Inspectors and otherwise, what Buildings, Additions, or Repairs, Wharfs, Cranes, and other Conveniencies required by this Act, are wanting at each respective Warehouse, and the said Justices shall appoint two Justices most convenient to each Warehouse, not being Proprietor or Proprietors of such Warehouse, to agree and contract for such Buildings, Additions, Repairs, Wharfs, Cranes, and other Conveniencies, as shall be determined to be wanting as aforesaid, and the said two Justices within five Days after such Appointment, shall give Notice to the Proprietor or Proprietors of each Warehouse concerning which they are appointed to contract, or his or their Agent, to meet them at some convenient Place, by them in such Notice to be appointed, at a Time not exceeding ten Days after the Date of such Notice, at which Meeting the said two Justices shall inform the said Proprietor or Proprietors, or his or their Agent, what is required of him or them, according to the Determination of the Justices aforesaid. And if the said Proprietor or Proprietors will not immediately enter into Bond to the Lord Proprietary, in such Penalty as the said Justices shall think proper, not exceeding 12000 lb of Tobacco, to do what is required as aforesaid, by the last of April next ensuing the Date of such Bond at farthest, or if after such Bond given, such Proprietor or Proprietors shall not compleat every Thing therein specified, according to the Tenor thereof, in either Case the said Justices shall forthwith agree in the best Manner they can, with some other Person or Persons, for doing what is determined as aforesaid to be done, or may be unfinished as aforesaid, and shall take a Bond for Performance of such their Agreement. And in Case one of the two Justices so said should die, or be removed, the other shall have as full Power to act, as if such Death or Removal had not happened.

And be it Enacted, That whatever Sum or Sums the Justices aforesaid may contract for as aforesaid, shall be audited and allowed in the next County Court after the Performance of such Contract, and be deducted out of the Tobacco and Money for the Rent of the House, for which such Sum or Sums were paid, until the County shall be reimbursed.

And be it further Enacted, That when and as often any new Inspector or Inspectors shall be appointed and chosen, in the Room and Stead of the Inspector or Inspectors to serve at the same Warehouse the preceding Year, that the said new Inspector or Inspectors shall, within ten Days after he or they shall be qualified to serve as an Inspector or Inspectors, according to the Directions in this Act, make out two Lists of all Hogsheads of Tobacco then in the same Warehouse being, (which Tobacco the old Inspector or Inspectors are hereby obliged and directed to deliver) well nailed, lined, and fit for shipping, (to the new Inspector or Inspectors) describing the Marks, Numbers, Gross, Tare, and Nett Weight, stamped and marked thereon, and sign a Receipt at the Foot of each List, of such Hogsheads received from the old Inspector or Inspectors, which Lists so as aforesaid given, with the Receipts thereto signed, shall be delivered to the old Inspector or Inspectors; the one of which Lists shall be by him or them lodged with the Clerk of the County, to be by him kept in his Office, under the Penalty of 8000 lb. of Tobacco to each Inspector neglecting to make such Lists, and the same Penalty on the old Inspector or Inspectors, who shall neglect to lodge the same with the County Clerk, to be recovered and applied as herein before directed; and the new Inspector or Inspectors is and are hereby declared to be answerable to the Owners of any Notes mentioned and described in such Lists, so far as to produce the same Hogshead or Hogsheads of Tobacco belonging to any Owner, and likewise that the said new Inspector or Inspectors shall be liable for, and answerable to the old Inspector or Inspectors, for all Damage that shall happen to such Tobacco mentioned in the Lists aforesaid, through his or their Negligence, during the Time of his or their serving as Inspector or Inspectors.

[☞ By the new Inspection Laws, the Choice of Inspectors under the old Laws stands, and the old Inspectors are to serve as under the old Laws, unless at some few Warehouses altered on the Eastern Shore.]

HAMBURGH, July 15.

THE French Deserters in this Quarter of Germany are very impatient to learn from the Minister of their Nation in this City, what their Court intends shall be their Fate. This Minister feeds them in the mean while with the Hopes of a general Pardon: If that should be granted, it is computed that France would immediately recover 35,000 Men, which are dispersed in Germany, and who are most desirous to return to their own Country, as most of them, being bred to no Business, are in a starving Condition.

Vienna, July 25. Notwithstanding the renewed Truce with the Turks, and the Assurances of the Grand Signior's Intention to live in Friendship with the Empress Queen, the Preparations of the Ottoman Porte seem to give our Court uneasiness, and probably gave Occasion to the new Levies that are making throughout most of the Dominions of the House of Austria. To the same Cause we ascribe the Resolution that has been taken to send large Quantities of Ammunition and Provisions to Hungary. Mean while some People, who pretend to be well informed, assert, that this Court has no Reason to take any Umbrage at the Turkish Preparations, which are occasioned only by a Coolness between the Porte and the Court of Russia, and the Concern which the Grand Signior takes in the Affairs of Poland.

Altona, July 22. Some Prussian Officers are come to this City, and to Hamburgh, to beat up for Volunteers. If the French Deserters, who swarm in this Part of Germany, receive not soon some favourable News from their Minister at Hamburgh, it is believed most of them will inlist in the Service of Prussia.

Ratisbon August 4. Our Correspondent in Lithuania informs us, that there are now upwards of 16,000 Russian Troops in that Part of the Dominions of Poland, and the Empress has promised to send double that Number there to support the Duke de Biron in Courland, if necessary. On the other Hand, they are collecting all the Troops possible in the Palatinates of Cuyvia and Volhinia, and the Nobles of Poland talk of taking 35 or 40,000 Troops into the Service of the Republick.

LONDON.

Extract of a Letter from Lisbon, dated July 23, 1763. Containing a Description of the Queen of Portugal.

"Her Majesty was this Day dressed in a Man's Scarlet Coat and Waistcoat, laced with a broad Gold Lace, and Diamond Buttons, a Man's Hat on her Head edged with Gold Lace, and having a Diamond Button, and her Hair done up as our Grenadier Guards have theirs. She rode a very fine Horse, fit for any General Officer, with Pistols before her and a Sword by her Side, suspended by a broad laced Belt. She rode astride, was booted and spurred, and in every respect so like the King, that a Stranger could not know the Difference, excepting by a Kind of Trousers, or Breeches, of Scarlet, that came down half-way her Boots. She is an excellent Horsewoman; and, I am told, when hunting, if she has any natural Call, she will dismount and settle it with as little concern, as a Man in Company of his own Sex. No Ladies accompany her at such Times. I had an Opportunity of seeing her in another Light, which was St. John's Day, at one of their Palaces, at a Family Entertainment. It began with a Ball Feast, from which we adjourned to the Palace, the King having given Orders, that all Strangers should be admitted.

"After viewing all the Apartments, which are upwards of a Quarter of a Mile in Length, we were summoned to a very elegant Supper. Neither the King nor Family supped in Public, but Count de la Lippe, the Captain General, with the Secretary of State, and all the Portuguese Nobility that were there, supped at the same Table. From this we went to a very fine Concert-Room, where we had the Pleasure of hearing the Queen and two Princesses sing, which were all the Ladies present. Here the Queen looked like a Woman, with a very noble Presence, and much like Miss Chedleigh, but something taller. After this we were entertained with an Opera, all the Performers at which were Capons, though some of them looked like Hens. The whole concluded with very fine Fire Works, the Gardens being grandly illuminated all Night."

To the PRINTER.

SIR,

I Entirely agree that Reflections on the whole Scotch Nation, on Account of the Dislike to a certain Nobleman, are scandalous and illiberal, and can serve no other End than prejudicing the Inhabitants of the northern and southern Parts of our Island against each other; whereas they ought in Reason and good Policy to be united. And I assure you no Body can more heartily wish perfect Harmony to subsist between them than I do. But yet, give me leave to observe, that our northern Brethren are equally culpable of harbouring the same Kind of Prejudices, are in all Respects full as National, and in point of promoting the Interest of each other, much more so. Now this being the Case, they should all, on their Parts, endeavour to divest themselves of National Prejudices as well as the English; but then they should banish from their Breasts all narrow Partialities, and consider themselves, as they really are, Fellow-Subjects, who ought to promote each other's Happiness, instead of idly wasting their Spleen, ridiculing and provoking each other to Anger. Let the English forbear their low illiberal abuse against Scotland, on Account of its Barrenness, Poverty, &c. and let the Scotch, who are settled in England, and who enjoy Places, or carry on Trade here, fairly deal in their Turn, with the People to whom they are indebted for Support, and not make it a Rule never to lay out a Farthing with an Englishman, which many of them now strictly, the ungratefully adhere to. Thus let each correct their own bad Behaviour towards the other, and then we may hope to see the Inhabitants of the North and South of this happy Island, live together in Harmony.

I am, Sir, Yours,

A SOUTH BRITON.

LONDON, July 12.

Thursday last a genteel well dreſt Man, mounted on a bay Gelding, ſtopped at the George at Acton, had Dinner dreſſed for him, Eat heartily, and, with the Aſſiſtance of the Landlord, drank two Bottles of Wine; after feeding his Horſe, ordered him to be brought to the Door; at this Time a Poſt-Chaiſe arrived, and the Landlord, out of Complaiſance, waited on his new Cuſtomers, during which Time the Gentleman thought proper to mount his Horſe and ride off, after telling the Hoſtler he had paid the Landlord; who ſoon after enquiring and finding what had happened, was determined not to be Bilked, mounted a good Horſe, and after riding four Miles, came up with his Cuſtomer upon the Uxbridge Road, giving his Horſe ſome Water at a Pond. The Landlord very politely expoſtulated with him for not paying his Reckoning, and the Gentleman as politely Anſwered, It was a Miſtake, which he would immediately rectify; and turning about to him as if he was going to pay him his Money, preſented at him a Piſtol, deſiring his Money and Watch, Swearing, if it was not immediately given, he would blow his Brains out. The Landlord then gave him his Watch, with about ſix Guineas in Gold and Silver; on receiving of which the Highwayman told him, Now go Home and tell my Landlady Miſtakes are rectified; and then rode off.

Glouceſter, July 11. Great Numbers of Exciſemen took up their Qualifications at our Quarter Seſſions this Week. Some of them perhaps may repent of their Employ, as we are told the Subterraneous Gentry of the Foreſt of Dean are determined to take all that come within their reach to the Regions below. One of the Brethren of the Stick was laſt Week catched by theſe Sons of Darkneſs in going his Rounds to the Cyder Mills, and was inſtantaneouſly hurried 2 or 300 Feet under Ground, where he now takes up his Abode. The Colliers, it is ſaid, uſe him very well, and he lives as they do; but they ſwear the Day of his Reſurrection ſhall not come to paſs 'til the Cyder act is repeal'd, or at leaſt 'till Cyder-making is over.

NEW-YORK, November 10.

On Sunday laſt, in the Afternoon, a Number, at leaſt 200 of diſorderly People, ſurrounded the Orchard of Mr. Nicholas Bayard, where a large Quantity of Apples lay in Heaps for making Cyder; Mr. Bayard being abſent, and only one white Man, an Hireling, with his Overſeer to take Care of his Intereſt at Home, ſome of them abuſed the Overſeer, threatning to take all the Apples away, in ſpite of him or his Maſter. The Overſeer, unable, with but one Aſſiſtant to keep them off, ordered a Gun to be brought him, which prevented their pilfering till it grew dark, when he was attack'd on ſeveral Quarters, as defying him to fire: He found it neceſſary to ſhow them he was in earneſt, and aiming at the Legs of two that were neareſt to him in the Orchard, his Piece being charged with Pidgeon Shot, he fired, and ſuppoſes he wounded one of them in the Legs, for he fell down ſoon after he got over the Slab Fence. The Family were alarm'd by the Noiſe, and immediately ſent another loaded Gun, by the other white Man, who was an old Privateer Sailor. Two of the other Ruffians then came over the Fence, not knowing another Gun was provided for them.—The Sailor called out Stand or Die, on which they ran off, and he fired at their Legs, deſiring them not to diſturb him any more that Night. He ſuppoſes he pepper'd one of them pretty ſmartly in the Breech or Thighs;—and if any of them applies for a Remedy, he hopes the Surgeon will give Information, and let the Patient know he is ready to give them Satisfaction, either to cure or renew the Wound. Mr. Bayard, (we are told) when he came Home, was obliged to ſend for Aſſiſtance, and to keep Watch all Night; and that Hendrick Scraleman, (next Door to Mr. Herring's) on Sunday Afternoon, 14 Days ago, was forced to Watch, to prevent their carrying off his Corn, being the chief Subſiſtence for his Family, wherein are 7 ſmall Children, was ſo beat and abuſed, that he was confined to his Bed for ſome Time, while his Family ſuffered. It is ſaid that among theſe vile People, Sunday ſeems to be only let apart, for their being more Diſorderly and Miſchievous, than on any other Day of the Week; and that there is ſcarce a Farmer, or Gentleman's Seat on this ſide of New-Woodland, but what ſuffers the ſame Injury, in having their Orchards and Corn Fields plunder'd, and their Graſs and Grain trampled on and hurt.—Theſe Enormities ſhew a ſhameful Corruption of Manners, and requires immediate Suppreſſion:—Mean while it is become Scandalous even for more orderly People to Walk out on that Day, ſince it cannot be done without mixing with Herds of vile People, and being expoſed to be taken for their Companions.—Which, it is hoped, thoſe who have good Characters to preſerve, will take proper Notice of.

We hear that on Friday laſt, a little Girl, Daughter of Mr. Brown, in Pearl Street, in reaſling Apples, ſtood too near the Fire, and her Cloaths were catch'd in a Blaze, from which being unable to diſengage herſelf, and no help being near, ſhe ran out into the Street, where a Chimney Sweeper threw his Cloth over her and extinguiſh'd the Flame; but ſhe was ſo much burn'd that ſhe expired on Sunday laſt.

PHILADELPHIA, November 15.

The following Account we have from Reading, in Berks County, viz. That on the Eighth Inſtant, in the Morning, about Day-light, the Houſe of Frantz Baily, in Albany Township, was attacked by a Party of Indians, who fired ſeveral times through his Windows; upon which he got up, and fired at the Enemy, when he received a Wound in his Wriſt, and one of his Children, a Boy, was killed: That one Hagenbouch, and two of his Sons, hearing the Firing, went to his Aſſiſtance, which made the Indians go off without deſtroying the Houſe or Barn: That they next went to the Houſe of one Stapleton, but one of his Sons ſeeing them, fired off a Gun, which occaſioned their paſſing by that Houſe; and going to George Schiſler's, where they tomahawked and ſcalped his Wife, mangled her in the moſt cruel Manner, and left her in a Condition which a Regard to Decency forbids to mention; they likewiſe killed one of Schiſler's Sons, whom they ſcalped, and half roaſted; and burnt his Dwelling-Houſe, Barn, and all the other Buildings: That from Schiſler's they went to Jacob Tree's, killed one Shober, and deſtroyed the Houſe and Barn: That they then plundered Daniel Smith's Houſe, and burnt it, with all his other Buildings: And that after all this, they proceeded to Philip Enos's about three Miles from Smith's, where they made Priſoner a Lad about 13 Years of Age, who afterwards eſcaped from them.——The Number of Indians that did this Miſchief, is ſaid not to exceed Nine, who ſpoke Engliſh, and ſome Dutch.——The Quantity of Grain deſtroyed, is thought not leſs than 2000 Buſhels; and the Condition of the Inhabitants is moſt melancholy, there being in ſeveral Houſes not leſs than 30 or 40 Children, beſides the Men and Women, and all obliged to fly for their Lives, without being able to bring off any thing for their Support.

On Friday Night laſt a Hatter's Shop in Front-ſtreet, near the Draw-bridge, was broke open, and robbed of Hats to a conſiderable Value.

And on Monday Night a Perſon was ſtopt by a Man on the High way, betwixt Darby and Cheſter, who preſented a Piſtol to his Breaſt, and robbed him of a ſmall Matter in Money; and the ſame Perſon, before he got to Town, was ſtopt a ſecond time, and ordered to deliver, by another Man; but on his telling him that he had juſt before been robbed, he let him go.

ANNAPOLIS, November 24.

Whoever apprehends the Servant Woman, and gets her committed to any Jail, and advertises it in the Maryland Papers, shall have Five Pounds Reward, paid to the Sheriff, before she is taken away, by
